

Oh bright and blessed hope

(LATHBURY. 6.4.6.4. D.)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Oh bright and bless - ed hope ! When shall it be,
 2. That love it - self en - joy, Which, ev - er true,
 3. Still, Lord, to see Thy face, Thy voice to hear ;

That we His face, long loved, Re - vealed shall see ?
 Did, in our fee - ble path, Its work pur - sue !
 To know Thy pre - sent love, For ev - er near ;

Oh ! when, with - out a cloud, His fea - tures trace,
 O Je - sus ! not un - known, Thy love shall fill
 To gaze up - on Thy - self So faith - ful known,

Whose faith - ful love, so long, We've known in grace ?
 The heart in which Thou dwell'st, And shalt dwell still !
 Long proved in se - cret help With Thee a - lone ;

4. To see that love, content
 On us flow forth,
 For ever Thy delight,
 Clothed with Thy worth.
 Nor, what is next Thy heart,
 Can we forget ;
 Thy saints, O Lord, with Thee
 In glory met.

5. Perfect in comeliness
 Before Thy face,
 Th'eternal witness, all,
 Of Thine own grace ;
 Together, then, their songs
 Of endless praise,
 With one harmonious voice,
 In joy they'll raise !
