

We love to sing Thy praises

(LLANELLY, 7.6.7.6.D.)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. We love to sing Thy prais - es, O
2. Oh, love be - yond all tell - ing, Be -

Je - sus Christ the Lord; It is our new-born yond all ken or thought, Which Thou, O bless-ed glad - ness Thy good - ness to re - Sav - iour, To us from heaven hast cord: The one ab - sorb - ing trea - sure That brought! In Thee we see u - nit - ed Both fills our heart and eye Is love that came to God and man in One; Hence power and love un - suf - fer, For en - e - mies to die.

mea - sured Com - bined in Thee are shown.

3. The power of the Creator
Gives glory to Thy name ;
The love of the Redeemer
Enhances all Thy fame :
Creator and Redeemer,
Almighty Saviour Lord,
The power and love that saved us
For ever be adored.

Alternate Tunes : Hankey, 154 ; Farewell, 86.