

And shall we see Thy face ( Hope )

( SILCHESTER. S.M. )

John Nelson Darby (1800-1882)

Henri Abraham Cesar Malan (1787-1864)

$\text{♩} = 96$

1. And shall we see Thy face,
 2. With Thee in garments white,
 3. Close to Thy trust - ed side,
 4. Fruit of Thy bound - less love,

And hear Thy heaven - ly voice,
 Lord Je - sus, we shall walk ;
 In fel - low - ship di - vine ;
 That gave Thy - self for us ;

Well known to us in pre - sent grace ?
 And spot - less in that heaven - ly light,
 No cloud, no dis - tance, e'er shall hide
 For ev - er we shall with Thee prove

Well may our hearts re - joice.
 Of all Thy suff - erings talk.
 Glo - ries that then shall shine.
 That Thou still lov'st us thus.

5. And we love Thee, blest Lord,
 E'en now, though feeble here,
 Thy sorrow and Thy cross record
 What makes us know Thee near.

6. We wait to see Thee, Lord,
Yet now within our hearts
Thou dwell'st in love that doth afford
The joy that love imparts.
7. Yet still we wait for Thee,
To see Thee as Thou art ;
Be with Thee, like Thee, Lord, and free
To love with all our heart.

Alternate Tunes : St. Michael, 235 ; Boylston, 31.