Mélodie anglaise (19ème siècle)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. O Thou, whose mer-cies far ex - ceed All we can do or say, As in Thy peo-ple Thou in - deed Dost

dai - ly more dis - play; Let, for our hap - pi - ness, O

God, On us while here be - low, By vir-tue of Christ's death and blood, Thy rich-est blessings flow.

2. Preserve Thy flock most graciously,
By Thine all-powerful hand ;
Move them from every harm away,
'Twixt them and danger stand ;
Till Thou shalt fully have obtained
In us the fruits of grace,
And we, in joys that never end,
Shall see Thee, face to face.

3. Do Thou, the very God of peace,
Us wholly sanctify,
And grant us such a rich increase
Of power from on high,
That spirit, soul and body may,
Preserved free from stain,
Be blameless until that great day ;
Lord Jesus Christ, Amen !
